To whom it may concern:

I have known Demetri Argyropoulos and Prima Worldwide for a number of years now and would highly recommend him and his company for putting together high-profile relationships.

Due to my philanthropic interest, I approached Demetri about an introduction to a former President of the United States. Demetri and his team, utilising the 'Prima network', skilfully put the introduction together and assisted me in cultivating the relationship to fruition. I think him and his team did a great job and will look to utilizing Prima in the future.

I would be happy to address any specific questions on Demetri Argyropoulos and Prima Worldwide.

Sincerely,

Joachim Schoss
